Our CEO Priya Kartik had the pleasure of speaking at the Young Professional Gather for Annual Summit. During her presentation, she lectured on the importance of being your authentic self to build long-lasting, and genuine connections when networking. This allows others to have true respect for us because of our authenticity and character rather than our likability. It was truly a great opportunity.

Our CEO Priya Kartik is pictured here Had the pleasure of attending TEDx records, Camden, with three speakers of which she trained. And we were so thrilled and proud of her and her continuous efforts to share her expertise and give back outside of Enspire Academy.
